HOMELESSNESS PREVENTION AND RAPID REHOUSING PROGRAM (HPRP)

HPRP is part of the American Recovery and Reinvestment Act, which was created by President Obama and HUD in 2009. HPRP is a short-term assistance program intended to assist individuals and families who are homeless or at risk of becoming homeless due to financial hardship brought on by the recent economic downturn. This program will not be able to help everyone who is homeless or at risk of eviction.

HPRP provides two types of assistance: homelessness prevention and rapid re-housing. Priority must be given to those who are most in need of this temporary assistance and who are most likely to achieve stable housing after the assistance has ended. The program has strict regulations for participation.

To qualify for HPRP assistance:

1. You must currently live in the City of Los Angeles
2. You must be homeless or at risk of homelessness, with no alternative housing options, financial resources or support networks to help you find housing or stay in your home.
3. Your current income must not exceed the amounts in the table below:

Household Size	1 person	2 persons	3 persons	4 persons	5 persons	6 persons	7 persons	8 persons
Annual Income	$29,000 or less	$33,150 or less	$37,300 or less	$41,400 or less	$44,750 or less	$48,050 or less	$51,350 or less	$54,650 or less

4. You must meet the requirements for either homeless prevention assistance or rapid re-housing as listed below:

Homelessness Prevention Assistance

If you are a renter facing eviction and have received a 3 Day Notice from your landlord and you meet the requirements above, you may be eligible for legal services, supportive services and/or other assistance to help you stay in your current home.
